DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY
BOTANY FEST (2023-2024)
REPORT

Date: 05/10/2023

On the occasion of "World Nature Day (October 3) Department of Botany, Kamla Nehru Mahavidyalaya has organized an intercollegiate event, Botany Fest "Vasudhaiva Vanaspati Vigyanam" on 3rd October 2023. The theme for this fest was "Mother Earth-Preserving Our Roots"

Nature of Activity:

This fest aimed to provide a platform for students to showcase their innovative approaches to gardening and generate income through their horticultural skills. The event was inaugurated by Dr. Anagha Patil and Principal Dr. D. S. Badwaik. The inauguration was marked by the release of a handmade Botany bulletin 'Prakruti Spandanam', which highlighted the key themes and objectives of the fest. With an aim to emphasize the interconnectedness of all life forms and the need to safeguard our botanical heritage for future generations. This fest includes four competitions-Nature Photography, Plant exhibition, Miniature Garden and Best out of Plant Waste.

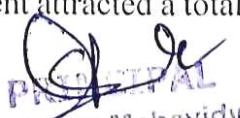

The diverse participation underlined the widespread interest and involvement in Botany and gardening. The core activity of the fest involved students presenting their innovative gardening techniques and products. Through these presentations, students had the opportunity to earn income by selling their garden-related products such as Exotic plants, Miniature Garden etc. A total of 14 students actively participated in the sales segment of the fest, collectively generating ₹4,500. This amount reflects the students' ability to effectively market their gardening creations and highlights the practical benefits of their involvement in the event.

Objectives:

- The main objective was to educate the students and public about common plants and exotic plants etc.
- It also foster appreciation for their beauty and diversity and potentially raise awareness about plant conservation.
- This fest also serves a platform for showcasing their innovative ideas, creativity in gardening technique which help them to generate revenue.

Outcomes: The Botany Fest successfully achieved its goals by providing a platform for students to demonstrate their gardening skills and earn income. The visitors' involvement and the participation from different colleges highlight how important these kinds of activities are for encouraging botany and environmental responsibility. Students used their knowledge creatively and used practical skills and provided contribution for conservation of nature.

Number of Beneficiaries: The fest saw enthusiastic participation from 69 students representing various colleges. Additionally, the event attracted a total of 170 visitors, including both students and faculty members.

at the Botany Fest:

On the occasion of "World Nature Day", Department of Botany, Kamla Nehru Mahavidyalaya is organising a Botany Fest-'Vasudhaiva Vanaspati Vigyanam' on 3rd Oct, 2023. The main objective of Botany fest is to create interest and love for botany in order to inculcate the indigenous practical value and knowledge with fun. The fest is a step further in enhancing its utility not only to foresters, scientists and researchers but also to all the students interested in plants, who wants to achieve some insight and awareness.

Theme: 'Mother Earth- Preserving Our Roots'

For the Botany Fest signifies the importance of conserving and protecting the natural heritage, biodiversity, and ecological balance of our planet. It emphasizes the interconnectedness of all life forms and the need to safeguard our botanical heritage for future generations.

Vision:

Botany Fest introduces the concept of 'Vasudhaiva Vanaspati Vigyanam' which means where the life begins from Vasudhaiva (Mother Earth) in the form of Vanaspati (Plants and other life forms) whereas the ethno-botanical knowledge integrated to provide solutions to the problems of Vigyan yuga (Modern age science).
